FORTY-FIFTH CONGRESS.

Woman's Legal Rights---The Select Fraud Committee--The Schleicher Bill--Internal Improvements Aided---Morrill on Resumption--Grant on the Retired List.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—SENATE.—Mr. Thurman, from the Judiciary Committee, to which was recommitted the House bill to provide for the admission to the bar of the Supreme Court of the United States of any woman who has been a member of the bar of a State or territory for the period of three years, reported it back, together with the amendments of Sargent, providing that no person shall be refused admission to the bar of any United States Court on account of sex, and said he had been directed by the committee to report, as they reported before, that there was no law prohibiting a court from admitting a woman to a bar and, therefore, there was no necessity for this legislation. After some discussion the bill was placed on the calendar with the adverse report.

The Judiciary Committee reported adversely on the bill allowing woman to practice in the Supreme Court. The report says there is no law against it, and the Court must decide for itself.

The Agricultural Committee reported adversely the bill regulating transportation of cattle. It involves the use of patent cars. A Commission to investigate a whole question is proposed.

Mr. Morrill made an elaborate speech against the resumption act, after which Mr. Cockrell, of Missouri, called up the bill placing General Shields on the retired list with the rank of Brigadier General. Mr. Sargent submitted the following amendment as an additional section: That the President is hereby authorized to appoint Ulysses S. Grant, late General commanding the army of the United States, a General on the retired list of the army, with the full rank, pay and allowances of that grade, except the General so retired shall not be allowed forage for horses or commutation therefor, or aids-de-camp or other staff officers, unless called into active service in time of war. A long colloquial debate followed. Mr. Oglesby, continuing, said he did not know that General Grant cared to have his name mentioned in this connection. He did not know that it would be agreeable to his feelings. He had been greatly honored by the American people, and he might live long enough to be honored again by them.

Mr. Blaine, of Maine, said he did not quite concur in what had been said by the honorable Senator from Illinois, (Mr. Oglesby,) respecting the amendment offered by the Senator from California, (Mr. Sargent). General Scott was retired from the head of the army with the full rank, pay and allowances. Was there any Senator on this floor who wished to say by his vote that the services of General Grant were not as important as those of General Scott, as to his military renown and his achievements in the war for the Union, there could be no dispute among Senators on either side of the Chamber. The amendment of Mr. Sargent was then agreed to. Yeas, 30; nays, 28, as follows:

Yeas—Messrs. Allison, Blaine, Booth, Bruce, Burnside, Cameron, of Pennsylvania; Cameron, of Wisconsin; Christiancy, Conkling, Conover, Dorsee, Edmunds, Ferry, Hamlin, Hoar, Ingersoll, Kellogg, Kirkwood, Lamar, McMillan, Matthews, Mitchell, Morrill, Patterson, Plumb, Rollins, Sargent, Saunders, Tell and Windom.—30.

Nays—Messrs. Armstrong, Bailey, Barnum, Bayard, Beck, Cockrell, Coke, Davis, of Illinois, Davis, of West Virginia, Dennis, Eaton, Eustice, Grover, Harris, Hill, Johnston, Jones, of Florida, Keman, McCreery, McPherson, Maxey, Merrimon, Oglesby, Randolph, Thurman, Voorhees, Whyte and Withers—28.

Messrs. Wadleigh and Howe, who would have voted in the affirmative, were paired with Messrs. Hereford and McDonald, who would have voted in the negative.

Mr. Anthony, of Rhode Island, said he was paired with the Senator from Deleware, (Mr. Saulsbury.) He didnot know how that Senator would vote on this question, but as Senators on that side of the Chamber voted in the negative, (he, Mr. Anthony,) would not vote in the affirmative, as he would do if not paired.

The announcement of the vote by which the amendment was passed, was greeted with applause in the galleries, but it was soon checked.

A long debate followed on the bill as amended, Senator Cockrell charging that the amendment had been offered to kill it without action.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.—The Select Committee on the alleged frauds in the presidential election was announced as follows: Potter, of New York; Morrison, of Illinois; Hunton, of Virginia; Stenger, of Pennsylvania; McMahon, of Ohio; Cobb, of Indiana; Blackburn of Kentucky; Cox, of Ohio; Butler, of Massachusetts; Reed, of Maine, and Hiscock, of New York.

A cable message from Minister Noyes, at Paris, was presented, asking to be subpœnaed before the committee.

The day was occupied with business of the District of Columbia.

Among the bills introduced was one by Mr. Shelly, of Alabama, known as the Schleicher bill, (entitled a bill granting aid by the National Government to certain companies incorporated by State authority for works of internal improvement. The companies are authorized to issue bonds sufficient to construct, complete and equip their respective works, to run fifty years, and to bear interest at the rate of five per cent. per annum, the government to guarantee the interest which is to be paid semi-annually at the Treasury of the United States. The government to hold a mortgage on all the property now held, or to be acquired hereafter, by said companies, to be held in trust for the ultimate payments of both interest and principal of said bonds. The companies are forever prohibited from creating any other mortgage or lien upon their property, and from watering or otherwise increasing their stock, and any use of the money obtained upon said bonds by any officer of the company, or by any other person, for any other purpose whatever, is declared a felony, punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not less than ten nor more than forty years, in the discretion of the court and jury. The companies included in the bill are the James River and Kanawha Canal, the Atlantic and Great Western Canal, connecting the Tennessee river at Guntersville with the Atlantic coast at Savannah; the Florida Coast Canal; the Fort Saint Philip Canal; the Hennepin and Chicago Canal; the Niagara Falls Ship Canal; the Oswego Canal; the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad, connecting the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad with the Louisville and New Orleans lines; the Blank Railroads to the Pacific coast. The whole amount of money required for these works is 220,000,000 dollars, upan which the government guarantees interest. The friends of the bill claim that its passage will give immediate employment to five hundred thousand men, and will require the use of fifty thousand mules and horses, and will at once relieve the financial pressure now prevailing in the land.

Congressman Ellis, by request introduced Senator Johnson's Texas-Pacific bill, amended to include Wheelack's New Orleans Pacific.

EUROPEAN NEWS.

Indian Coast Defences---Russian and Turkish Movements at Constantinople---The Increasing Strength of the Turks --Shouvaloff at Berlin.

By Cable to the News.

LONDON, May 20.—The Times has the following from Calcutta: Orders have been issued for the immediate construction of coast defenses. Madras will be protected by five batteries armed with sixty-five pounder rifled guns. Batteries will also be erected at various points on the Eastern coast.

The Times' St. Petersburg correspondent says: While there is reason to believe that the foundation of an arrangement has been laid between the Cabinets of London and St. Petersburg, a small group of persons who know what has occurred, maintain extreme reserve. It is difficult to say how far the various rumors are to be relied on.

The Vienna correspondent of the Times telegraphs: The conciliatory disposition in St. Petersburg has been turned to the end of Count Schouvaloff's visit, despite the efforts to the contrary, and the struggle, political and personal, which has been going on for the last week in St. Petersburg, was deemed in favor of Count Schouvaloff.

In proportion as the news from St. Petersburg is more pacific, that from Constantinople is more warlike. The Russians insist that the movements of their troops are not intended as hostile, but the Turks notwithstanding are hard at work strengthening their lines and buying up guns. This is not easy, as the Turkish line of defence from the Sea of Marmora to the Black Sea is so long, and while the Turkish forces about the capital are superior to the Russian, it is hardly sufficient to man such a length of line. The Turks, however, will soon be reinforced by forty battalions released in Thessaly and twenty battalions from Varna.

The Times' correspondent at Pera says, there is no apprehension of a Russian coup de main.

A despatch to the Daily News from Syria says: The chief of Mecca has issued an appeal to the faithful that the Khalif is in danger, and calling upon them to fly to the rescue.

Some uneasiness is felt at Vienna about the prospect of an understanding between England and Russia, but this feeling is not shared by the ministers, who are thoroughly convinced of England's good faith regarding the European settlement. Berlin seems incredulous about amicable arrangement, and the Times correspondent who is generally first in the field with bad news says Russia has not offered England sufficient concessions in Bulgaria. Russia in fact prefers to surrender her Asiatic acquisitions rather than forego her schemes on Bulgaria. Such utterances as the foregoing can only create irritation at Vienna.

Russian official papers circulate the statement that the movements of the army before Constantinople are not hostile or necessary.

The Times Pera correspondent says that this is becoming the general conviction there, though on Thursday and Friday the movements caused a regular panic. The same correspondent says, the strength and organization of the Turkish army are now such, that a prudent General like Todleben would hesitate to attempt a coup de main were his rear harrassed by the Rhodope insurrection.

General Todleben's object all along has been to take up a good defensive position. He was not allowed to fall back as he wished from San Stefano. He therefore consolidated his men as far as possible by bringing up troops from the rear. The Turkish army is not only strong enough to defend the neutrality, but even to assume the offensive if neutrality was seriously menaced. This fact sufficiently explains General Todleben's care to lift his army off the San Stefano flats to the adjacent heights and give it a strong backing of support by bringing up troops from the rear.

Bucharest advices state that the Russians continue to move troops and guns from the Danube into Bulgaria. None are coming northward. There are no Russians at Piteste as alleged.

Prince Gortschakoff is slightly better but unable to work.

BERLIN, May 20.—Count Schouvaloff is here. He was received by the Emperor at noon, and will proceed to Friedriechruhe to see Bismarck and subsequently will continue his journey to London.

The Strike in England.

LONDON, May 20.—The districts in Lancashire, in which strikes have taken place, have become comparatively quiet. There has been no rioting since Friday night, and everybody is looking hopefully for a settlement.

The Oldham operatives have resolved to submit the question of resisting the proposed reduction of five per cent. in their wages to the ballot.

A card from the operatives at Oldham, states that they have accepted the reduction of five per cent., at the same time they express the hope that their employers will advance wages without trade revives.

An unconfirmed report is current at Blackburn, that the military at Clitheroe, Lancashire, fired on the mob of striking operatives. Blackburn is greatly agitated, and a renewal of riotous proceedings is feared.

The spinners have resolved to reject the proposition to resume work on Alderman Pickop's terms.

Meeting of the Democratic Campaign Committee.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The Democratic Committee, composed of Hon. Jas. C. S. Blackburn, Chairman; Senator McDonald and representatives Banning, Hunton, and Jones, of New Hampshire, elected as president of the committee John G. Thompson, and selected Mr. Harvey as Treasurer, and General Duncan S. Walker as Secretary.

ATLANTA CONFERENCE.

The Bishops---Marvin---Publishing Interests---Home Missions---Ecumenical Council---Methodist Centennial---Christian Salutation---Personal.

From our Special Reporter.

ATLANTA, May 18, 1878.

SIXTEENTH DAY—COMMITTEE REPORTS.

The Committee on Episcopacy reported, that they had carefully examined into the official lives aund conduct of the Bishops for the last four years and found every one of them blameless. We heard one good brother say "Thank the Lord for that report." The Committee on Episcopacy also, presented a paper eulogizing the late Bishop Marvin and the Conference devoted several hours to short addresses in memory of the departed Bishop. Many tears were shed as the different speakers related the scenes of the last days of Bishop Marvin. Truly he was a great, good, holy man.

PUBLISHING INTERESTS.

The Committee on Publishing Interests presented a report to-day in regard to the Nashville Christian Advocate and the Sunday School papers. A minority report was also presented severely criticizing the editorial and business management of the Nashville Christian Advocate, but both were laid on the table and will come up again for consideration, when I will notice the subject more particularly.

HOME MISSION.

We had several very animated discussions to-day, one in regard to the formation of a Home Missionary Aid Society and one in regard to the Publishing House claim against the United States, but as no action whatever was taken in either case I will not enter into detail in regard to them.

ECUMENICAL CONFERENCE OF METHODISTS.

The General Conference to-day voted to co-operate with all other Methodists, especially with the Northern Methodists, in trying to hold an Ecumenical Conference of all the Methodists in the world, and, if the plans succeeds the Conference will be a grand one.

METHODIST CENTENNIAL.

It was also resolved to-day to take steps to celebrate the one hundreth anniversary of the first organization of the Methodist Church in America. The church was first permanently organized in America in the city of Baltimore Dec. 25th, 1784 and it is proposed to have a Grand Centennial Anniversary, participated in by all the Methodist in the United States and Canada, in Baltimore Dec. 25 1884.

CHRISTION SALUTATIONS.

The Conference by a unanimous vote instructed the Secretary to send by telegraph, or by mail its Christian Salutations to the General Assembly of the Southern Presbyterian church now in session at Knoxville, Tenn., and also to the General Assembly of the Cumberland Presbyterians now in session at Lebanon, Tenn. After announcing about 80 appointments for preaching to-morrow in and near the city, the conference adjourned with the benediction.

PERSONAL.

Dr. Burkhead, Dr. Wilson and Rev. Mr. Black, all of N. C. are appointed to preach in the city, to-morrow.

Dr. T. M Jones, left on yesterday for his home in N. C. The approaching commencement of Greensboro Female College hurried him home.

We had the pleasure of meeting Judge A. A. McKoy of N. C., in the city to-day and afterwards noticed him sitting, by invitation, with the N. C. Delegation in the Conference room.

R.

THE SUPREME COURT.

The West for Judge Schenck for Associate.

Correspondence of the News.

CONCORD, May 20th.

The West is entitled to and will demand that one member of the Supreme Court shall be a western man. Shall she be allowed to select her own man, or will the other sections of the State select for her? Does the East know the qualities and qualifications of western men better than the west does? I expect to be in the State Convention. I know very little of the eastern bar, whilst I am familiar with nearly every western lawyer. I expect to be governed, in voting for an eastern man, by the recommendations of the east. If the west is to be allowed to select her candidate, David Schenck will certainly be the man.

THE WEST FOR SCHENCK.

Notwithstanding the rash imprudence of his friend, and the attacks of a few Democrats, and all the Radical party, he will come to the Convention with nearly a united west. Seventeen, (nearly every one which has declared at all) counties have already declared for Schenck. Why should the voice of the west be disregarded? Judge Schenck is in the prime of manhood, of irreproachable moral character, indefatigable energy, brilliant intellect, and large attainments in his profession.

AN EARLY CAREER.

About twenty years ago, without the benefit of a collegiate education, and with no money, he commenced the practice of his profession, at a bar, composed of Judge Osborne, Hon. Wm. Lander, Hon. Jos. H. Wilson, Judge Bynum, Col. Hoke and others, not unknown to fame. With such competitors as these, he fought his his way to the front in a few years, and when the Judge of the Ninth District was to be elected in '74; he was chosen by the people over Judge Shipp and Col. Hoke. He was elected by the people, who knew all three well, who knew all about the Shotwell matter and charges. It is useless for his enemies to say that he electioneered. All of them did as much electioneering as Schenck did.

ON THE BENCH.

Since his promotion the reputation of Judge Schenck has steadily and rapidly increased. We knew that just prior to his death, the late Chief Justice (the differing as widely as possible from Judge Schenck in politics), wrote Judge Schenck a private private letter complimenting him, for his research, learning and discrimination manifested upon the bench.

ASSAULTED BY HIS PARTY FRIENDS.

It is astonishing that Democrats will join in with the Radicals and Revenue Officers to persecute such a man as Judge Schenck. Amid the storm which has been raised against him, by the indiscretion of friends. Through sympathy for Captain Shotwell, and the malignant abuse of "C," and other Radicals, Judge Schenck has gone forward in the discharge of his duties, heroically, trusting to the people who have always sustained him, to vindicate him, and he will not be disappointed. The West will fight long and hard before she gives up such a man. X.

JUDGE DICK'S COURT.

Personal and Partisan--Franks Frightens Douglas---Old Dynasty Deputies Getting Back.

Asheville Citizen.

We have had Judge Dick and Marshal Douglas with us again, and we have seen no occasion for thinking the Waddell bill should not become a law. The past year has only confirmed the opinion generally held that Judge Dick is simply a judicial demagogue, using his position for partizan and personal ends. He again charged the grand jury that it was not an inquisitorial body—it could not present any man for any crimes, corruptions or other offences unless a bill against such should be first sent by the District Attorney, thus cutting off all presentments against those only whom said Attorney should please to have indicted. Again, in the case of Joshua A. Franks. This was continued, with opposition by the District Attorney. The reason assigned for a continuance was the absence of necessary witnesses, when this is the third court, and no subpœna had ever been issued for either. But, Joshua gave the Marshal to understand that if this investigation should be gone into he would protect himself by showing the "true inwardness" of this Marshal's outrages, and as the appointment of Marshal has to be made this June, Marshal Douglas thought it best to continue, and so the District Attorney and Judge continued it without opposition. Bro. Jim Dick is back as Chief Deputy. Charlie Clarke may be expected next fall, if Douglas is re-appointed.

BEAUFORT HARBOR.

Marine Steam Railway-Wrecking Steamer Deer--Capt. Appleton Oaksmith.

Beaufort Atlantic.

We are pleased to note the arrival of Captain Appleton Oaksmith, commanding the steamer Deer, and several other smaller craft, laden with the machinery and appliances for a steam railway, which he proposes to establish at Morehead, or some suitable point on Beaufort harbor.

This enterprise has been in contemplation for several months, and we are glad to see it now assuming a practical shape, and will be speedily put in operation.

A steam railway so near the ocean must be a great convenience to shipping in general, and particularly to crippled vessels driven into our harbor by inability to proceed to their point of destination. Work can be done here as cheaply and substantially as at any town adjacent to the coast. The pluck and energy that has done this work is worthy of all praise. Captain Oaksmith knows no such word in his vocabulary as "fail." It is an effort in the right direction. While we ascribe great credit to Captain Oaksmith for what he has accomplished, let us not forget those enterprising citizens of Morehead and Beaufort who contributed their means to secure the success of this work, which we trust will prove remunerative in large dividends.

GRANVILLE COUNTY.

Fine Tobacco and Advancing Prices--Death of a Lady.

Correspondence of the News.

OXFORD, May 18.

The recent advance in tobacco has cheered the hearts of our farmers who make bright wrappers. A large number of farmers in Granville get an average price of from twenty-five dollars to forty dollars per hundred pounds for their entire crop. Of course, there are some who average even higher than this; making Granville the banner county of the State for fine tobacco. This fact is well-known and conceded in the Richmond market. The profits here, on good farms, well managed, are almost fabulous, and would tax the credulity of your readers were I to give a few statistics.

DEATH IN OXFORD.

THE CHARGES AGAINST SHERMAN.

The Evidence at Hand to Support Them---Mrs. Jencks and the Sherman Letter..

Washington Correspondent.

The particular evidence on which John Sherman is indicted in the Potter resolution is a photographic copy of his letter to Weber and Anderson, the supervising inspectors of East and West Feliciana, Louisiana. This letter authorized them to make out the protest against the results in those parishes on which the returning board threw out the Democratic votes. These men at first hesitated, and it will be remembered the delay caused an open and flagrant violation of the law on the part of the returning board in receiving the protests. Mrs. Jencks, a friend of Mrs. Weber, was here in January with this letter to make terms with Secretary Sherman. She disposed of the original to him, but first had it photographed, and this copy is the one that has fallen into the enemy's hands.

Terrific Storm at Vicksburg.

By Telegraph to the News.

VICKSBURG, MISS., May 20.—The city was visited by a terrific storm of wind and rain Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. The wind reached a velocity of fifty-five miles an hour. It lasted seven minutes and many stores were unroofed. Maurice Meyer & Co. Dry Goods; H. Tuck, Clothing; M. McManus, Fitzpatrick & Bros. and E. W. Waller, Groceries; were the principal sufferers. Their stocks were damaged by water.

The wall of the Mississippi Valley Bank building was damaged by the roofing of McManns' building being blown against it. The law offices in Homethal's building were flooded. The rain fall in two hours was one and a half inches.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Potter, the Chairman of the Investigating Committee, is reported to be gone to New York to consult Tilden.

THE DAY AND THE DECLARATION.

Mecklenburg Independence---One Hundred and Third Anniversary---Visiting Military---The South Carolina Guards---Oration by Colonel Thomas---Brief Speech by Governor Vance.

Special dispatch to the News.

CHARLOTTE, May 20.

The one hundred and third anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was celebrated to-day with greater eclat than has ever been known, except on the occasion of the Centennial of 1875.

MILITARY DISPLAY.

There were six military companies in line, among these the Governor's Guards, of Columbia, South Carolina, and the Cape Fear Light Artillery, of Wilmington. Governor Vance and Adjutant General Jones reviewed the troops at 11 a. m., when the procession, composed of fire, military companies and a company in Continental uniform, was formed and marched to Bryce's Grove, on Tryon street.

THE DECLARATION AND ORATION.

Here the Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence was read, and a chaste and appropriate oration delivered by Colonel J. P. Thomas, in the presence of a large assemblage from Charlotte, Mecklenburg and surrounding towns.

GOVERNOR VANCE SPEAKS.

At the conclusion of the address, Governor Vance was called out and addressed the audience upon general topics in a very happy manner, for the space of fifteen minutes. The day passed off without an untoward occurrence, and the visiting military left to-night for their homes, delighted with their reception and treatment.

ROLESVILLE.

Sabbath School Picnic.

Correspondence of the News.

ROLESVILLE, May 17.

The pupils, parents and friends of the Second Baptist Sunday School of this village held a picnic on the 16th, which was largely attended and immensely enjoyed. A picturesque spot had been previously prepared by the erection of rustic seats and a speaker's stand, to which pleasant resort the school marched in procession headed by its oldest pupil, a great-grandfather in his 85th year, and two of the youngest scholars bearing beautiful bouquets of flowers. Arriving at the grounds the exercises of the day were begun in a novel and interesting manner. The roll of the school was called and each pupil responded by repeating a verse of scripture and when the last one answered to the call a Psalm suited to the occasion had been read. Then followed singing by the whole school and such singing as would have reflected credit upon the trained choirs of some of our Metropolitan churches.

It is but just to say that this school, though known as the Second Baptist, has been organized and tutored through the individual efforts of Mrs. and Mr. S. W. Terrell, independently of any church organization. Its first inception was the formation of an infant class, in July last. It now has a membership of 118 and is still increasing; has a library and 100 volumes; has bought and circulated one thousand tracts and subscribes for two different S. S. papers for gratuitous distribution. And all this has been done in a small village where there are two other Sunday Schools in successful operation.

The short space of a letter is insufficient to give a full description of the exercises of the day. Speeches were made in the forenoon by four young gentlemen, students of Wake Forest College, all of whom evinced a deep interest in the Sabbath School cause and a knowledge of its usefulness. After a bountiful dinner, the exercises of the day were concluded by addresses from Revs. J. M. Wellons, of Franklinton, and L. J. Holden, of the M. E. Church at Rolesville, together with singing and recitations by the children, presentations of prizes, etc. The day was one of much happiness and pleasure to the children, and its annual recurrence will be anxiously looked for by them. John D. Kerr, Esq., Goldsboro. Candidate for Solicitor.

Correspondence of the NEWS.

GOLDSBORO, May 18.

In your editorial in to-day's paper on the position of Solicitor for this Judicial District, you mention and comment on the merits and legal attainments of several candidates for the nomination for that position, but omit, (I trust not intentionally), the name of our able and esteemed fellow-citizen, Jno. D. Kerr, Esq. It is not my purpose to eulogize Mr. Kerr as to his ability and sterling worth, both as a lawyer and a gentleman, because he does not need it, where he is so well-known, as he is in several of the counties composing this district, but as your paper is also read in those counties of this district where he is not personally known. I think it but an act of justice to him, that a party journal, in speaking of several candidates for any position, to give each one the same prominence before the people. FAIR PLAY.

Bret Harte.

Washington Capital.

That our friend and contributor; Bret Harte, should receive an appointment from the Government through which he may recuperate his health, in a pleasant residence upon the Rhine, is a pleasant fact to his many friends. But the appointment is not of a sort to reflect credit on the Administration. Mr. Bret Harte is a man of such rare genius that his pen has made his name better known in Europe than that of any gentlemen connected with this Administration which so complacently patronizes him.

We part with our genial friend with much reluctance. But, as the immortal Childs, whose pen does yield him a princely income, we say our loss is his gain:

"And now fare weel, me own gude man,
And now fare weel, quoth he—
A smarter chiel in a' the lan'
We never more may see."

Cameron---Sherman.

Washington Capital.

It is such a comfort to know that while the common people are plunging down the fearful depths of Communism we have a privileged aristocratic class strengthening itself by matrimonial alliances. People born to office are appearing among us, and after a time, if we prosper in that direction, we shall have pedigrees, and perhaps—who knows?—titles as well, to grace and make more acceptable this blessed dispensation. As we have now the Winnebago Chief and W. T. Sherman, General, why may we not expect Lord Cameron of the Winnebagoes, or Count Sherman of the tribe of Tecumseh, Grand Custodian of the Bootjack and Keeper of the Money bags?

Fine Cattle.

Hendersonville Courier.

Mr. Thomas Wood, Manager of Mr. C. P. Lowndes' fine plantation, Valley Home, in Transylvania county, has now in Charleston a lot of fine cattle, bred in Western North Carolina. They are to be sold at private sale, and slaughtered in Charleston. These cattle have been fattened entirely on beets and turnips, and deprived of water during feeding. They are said to be fully equal to any cattle ever shipped to the Charleston market, and will command handsome prices. This an indication of what North Carolina can do.

What They Say.

Washington Post.

The poor man pays double for his coat, his hat, his shoes, for all he eats, drinks or wears, owing to the tariff gradually riveted on him by a Radical Congress when it belonged, body and breeches, to the lords of the mill and the iron oligarchy of the East. Any effort to lift his burdens raises a howl. Mr. Tucker proved, in his late speech, that the furnaces are paying $500,000,000 to the privileged classes. Is the Government only a tender to the great manufacturing locomotive?

Carteret Politics.

Beaufort Atlantic.

The names so far mentioned in connection with the lower House of the General Assembly, embrace the following list: R W Bell, B M Hardesty, L T Oglesby, Capt. Oaksmith, Dr. M F Arendell, W F Howland, Dr. Richard Leffers, A H Chadwick, G W Smith, and R H Jones. We understand, however, Mr. Howland does not wish his name used for the position. The name of Mr. Geffroy has also been suggested, but he positively declines to enter the political arena for any office high or low.

Men for the Legislature.

Reidsville Times.

It is a pity that the good business men of this county, men who can do their particular section great good in the Legislature, are not prevailed upon by their fellow citizens to sacrifice their business at home for only a two months trip to Raleigh at four dollars a day. An effort should be made at once to persuade such men to go to the Legislature. The very men who have business at home and do not want to go are the very men the people should have to go.

Railroad in Randolph.

Randolph Sun.

The prospected railroad up the valley of Deep river is a social necessity, and the day is not distant when the still solitude will be broken by the whistle of the cars, and vine clad cottages will smile where brambles grow and wild woods wave. Here is to be found brain and capital and muscle sufficient under wise and wholesome legislation to develop her resources, build up her prosperity and rank her as the banner county of the State.

Campaign Advice.

Charlotte Democrat.

Getting the nomination for an office is not exactly an election these times. The nominee will have to be active if he should happen to have opposition. The utmost harmony should be preserved in the Democratic ranks this summer, for the Republican party party is not dead, but only sleepeth. Besides that, there is a large floating vote that can be carried to one or the other party, just as well as not.

Cheering Crops.

Concord Sun.

In every respect the season is opening in the most encouraging manner, for farmers, stock men, merchants, shipping, trade of every kind, industries and labor throughout the State, and in North Carolina the activity in improvements, buildings, etc., will soon provide work for the unemployed in abundance and wages for all.

Mountain Travelling.

Asheville Citizen.

Messrs. Weddin and Bailey have this week placed a four-horse stage between Hendersonville and the head of the Spartanburg and Asheville Railroad. Passengers from over that road now reach Hendersonville to dinner, in ample time to reach Asheville the same night.

Morehead City.

Atlantic Reporter.

Our municipal election went off quietly. There were 72 votes polled and Dr. M F Arendell received of that number 58 for Mayor. The Commissioners elect for the coming year are J R Franklin, Col. W N Dennis, T C Willis and W L Arendell.

Durham Doings.

Specially Reported for the News.

Fine grades of leaf tobacco are commanding high prices on our market.

Work on the new store of Messrs. Lyon and Duke is being pushed rapidly forward.

The handsome and convenient dwelling of Capt. N. A. Ramsey is approaching completion.

We have heard the News editorial on the "Thompson wife murder trial" very highly commended. Your head is very level on this subject.

Messrs. Blackwell & Co. have made heavy shipments of their genuine Durham this week. Business begins to look as it did previous to the tax discussion.

The next number of the University Magazine, which will appear in about ten days, will contain the address of Governor Vance on the "Life and character of Hon. D. L. Swain."

The Lodge of Knights of Pythias, of this place is in a very flourishing condition just now. The recent festival given under its auspices was one of the most pleasant and successful affairs of the season.

Mr. B. N. Duke, of the enterprising firm of W. Duke, Sons & Co., is having the dwelling on Chapel Hill street recently purchasedby him, thoroughly renovated, and when completed it will add very much to the appearance of that vicinity.

Hayes and Conkling not yet Reconciled.

By Telegraph to the News.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The reported reconciliation between Hayes and Conkling is premature, Conkling must take the initiatory step.

The Narrow Guage.

Lincoln Progress.

The grading of the Narrow Gauge Railroad is done to within two and a half miles of Newton. The work is being rapidly pushed forward, and it is thought the grading will be done to Newton by the last of August.

A Voice from the South.

The Atlanta Constitution.

Grace Greenwood puts down her aged brogan and remarks that "there is not a man among the Confederates who accepts the situation." What in the thunder are we all doing, then?

Present Making.

New York Star.

John Sherman sends $5,000 as his present to Don Cameron's bride. Five thousand dollars is exactly the amount that Sherman received for putting through that Washington pavement job.

Signs.

People who still adhere to the look-at-your-tongue-and--feel-of-your-pulse doctor sometimes express not a little curiosity in regard to Dr. R. V. Pierce's original method of distinguishing all forms of chronic disease without personal consultation. Some even suppose that he accomplishes this through clairvoyance, or some other species of professional jugglery. All this is utterly false. He claims to determine disease by the rational methods of science only. Says Comley, in his Blographical Encyclopedia of New York State, speaking this distinguished physician: "He perceived that in each of the natural sciences the investigator proceeds according to a system of signs. The geologist in his cabinet accurately determines and describes the cleft of rock, which he has never seen, from the minute specimen on his table. And the chemist in his laboratory notes the constituents of the sun with the same precision that he analyzes a crystal of rock salt. The analogous system developed by Dr. Pierce in Medical Science is worthy of his genius, and has made his name justly celebrated." For a full explanation of this ingenious system of diagnosis, see the People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, sent, post-paid, to any address on receipt of one dollar and fifty cents. Address the author, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Buffalo, N. Y.

Elsewhere in our columns will be found the full statement of the Semi-annual Drawing of the reliable Old Louisiana State lottery Company, occurring on the 11th June, prox. The Company holds its charter direct from the State, and was incorporated from education and charitable purposes in 1868. This drawing derives special interest from being under the exclusive and direct charge of Generals Beauregard and Early who will in person arrange all the details and assure absolute fairness in the distribution of this great sum of money. *

Something Artistic.

Mr. G. W. King, whose workshop is in the rear of the store of Messrs. T. H. Briggs & Sons, showed us on yesterday some gaffs of his own make. The owners of game cocks in our city say that his excel all other makes they have ever seen; somehow or other he sets them just exactly O. K. Orders from a distance will receive prompt attention. He uses the best steel. *

Are You Going to Paint?

Averell's Chemical Mixed Paint is the best paint in the world. Warranted to last much longer than pure lead in oil. Write and get a card containing 60 beautiful colors and prices. We also have the largest stock in North Carolina of Pure White Lead ground in oil. Julius Lewis & Co., Sole Agents, Raleigh, N. C. *

Wood!

I will sell, for cash, a consigned lot of wood, delivered at any house within the city limits, at the following reduced figures: Good oak at $3.00 per cord; woods pine at $2.75 per cord; field pine, seasoned, at $2.50 per cord. Also 100,000 brick, hard and salmon, cheap.

Office over M. T. Leach's store, Wilmington street. J. D. Whitaker. *

Cheap Fish!

Direct from Albemarle Sound. W. A. Myatt, Grocer & Commission Merchant of this City, is receiving and packing a large lot of N. C. (new) Cut Herrings. The are consigned direct from the fishery, and will be closed out at a bargain. Send in your orders at once.

A. C. Sanders & Co., have secured the agency for Gail & Ax's celebrated Scotch Snuff, put up tin boxes and bladders. They have now a fresh stock on hand, and are prepared to sell to merchants at Factory prices. They guarantee this Snuff equal to any on the market. *

Have You Seen Them!!

The splendid assortment of Plows and Castings which W. A. Myatt always keeps on hand. We notice he is a receiving a new supply to-day, also a car load each of Molasses and Flour which he says he can sell low down. *

A New Supply

of Misses' Sundowns, Flats, Sailor Hats, and the latest styles of Dress Hats, just received at Wm. Woollcott's new millinery store, corner of Hargett and Wilmington streets. *

BEAUFORT county as far as heard from is enthusiastic for Vance for the United States Senator.

BEAUFORT county instructs her delegates to the Congressional Convention to vote for Hon. Jesse J. Yeates.

A NUMBER of very interesting letters and other matter communicated to the News, unavoidably crowded out.

A LETTER from Wilson, referring to the late trial there, and noting the ability displayed by counsel on both sides, lies over, for want of room.

A WELL written communication on third page calls on Judge Schenck to retire from the contest for nomination on the Supreme Court bench as Associate Justice.

THE Democrats of Pamlico met in mass meeting at Bayboro on Saturday. Chief Justice Smith was the choice of the meeting for nomination to the position he holds; Hon. M. E. Manly for Associate Justice; Major Jesse J. Yeates for Congress and Wm. T. Caho for re-election to the State Senate.

THE committee to investigate Florida and Louisiana Presidential election frauds was announced in the House yesterday, as follows: Messrs. Potter of New York, Morrison of Illinois, Stenger, of Pennsylvania, McMahon of Ohio, Cobb of Indiana, Blackburn, of Kentucky, Cox, of Ohio, Butler of Massachusetts, Reed, of Maine and Hiscock, of New York. Six Democrats and five Republicans. Business will now begin.

The Mebklenburg Celebration.

The one hundred and third anniversary of the Mecklenburg Declaration of Indepencence was celebrated at Charlotte, Tarboro and perhaps other places in the State, yesterday.

History has assigned the Mecklenburg Declaration the first place on the scroll of revolutionary patriotism, and the people do well to pride themselves upon and observe it. But it has been found impracticable to secure a general observance of the day in the State, yet the local pride of Mecklenburg, where most of the descendants of the participating patriots of 1775 reside, are not likely to again neglect the glorious anniversary, though for a time, even there, it was not observed.

A Charlotte special gives an outline of the observance of the day in that city, and the reader will note that our South Carolina neighbors came over to participate in the pride of the occasion, while visiting military from Wilmington were on hand to tender the Hornet's Nest the compliments of the Cape Fear. Governor Vance was there, and as usual occupied the place of central figure in the exercises. Somehow or other Vance is always near the people, "thar, or thar abouts."

It is to be regretted that our people do not generally take more interest in these things. The Virginians would universally observe a day hallowed by the associations that cluster among the memories of the Mecklenburg Declaration, while our plain imperturbable, unpretending folk permit great events of which yesterday's anniversary was commemorative to pass without making impression on or attracting the slightest attention from the rising generation. But if we are a slow, we have always been a safe people; and in the hour of emergency never fail to rise to the level and the requirements of any occasion. Slow but solid, is the North Carolina characteristic.

Beaufort Harbor.

The Atlantic announces the arrival in that harbor of the steamer Deer, which Captain Oaksmith, and others have purchased and brought south to be used on the coast as a wrecking vessel; and to aid ships in distress. The Deer also brings a steam marine railway, to be located on the waters of Beaufort harbor, for the repair of disabled and leaky vessels that so frequently put in there in distress.

This is one of the most important movements undertaken for Beaufort harbor since its connection with the interior by rail. It must result in attracting much shipping to the port, creating a demand which will make Morehead city an important coaling station, and invite a commerce that this great South Atlantic harbor has never before enjoyed. Facilities for shipping will present themselves that must of necessity attract produce from the interior, and we may after all, through the enterprise of Captain Oaksmith and his associates, realize the great dream of the pioneers of our East and West system of railway communication.

Much credit is due the gentlemen who have set this enterprise on foot, and they should have the well-wishing encouragement of every lover of the State. Ship owners, shippers, and all those who go down to the sea in ships, will hail, with pleasure, the announcement of a steamer for rescuing wrecked seamen and property, stationed at so important a point on our coast. Many lives and much property are annually lost in the neighborhoods of Hatteras and Cape Lookout, that the presence of such a steamer and such provision will rescue and save, and the enterprise cannot fail of large pecuniary return to its projectors.

The News wishes Captain Oaksmith and those associated with him, the greatest success in the undertaking, and congratulates the people of Beaufort and Morehead upon the enterprise in their midst, and will cheerfully give all the aid and encouragement in its power toward the full consummation of a purpose so praiseworthy—an undertaking so essential and beneficial to commerce, in its results.

Official Accountability.

Some discussion was provoked and convulsion produced by the action of a portion of the Board of Aldermen requiring bonds of certain leading city officials.

The proposition by its suddenness had the effect to surprise the community, and met with opposition and denunciation, whereas if the matter had been previously discussed as a general proposition, it must have recommended itself to all, and secured the support and approval of the great body of our local citizens. The bonds proposed and required, may have been excessive; that is not the point under consideration. The general proposition is to be looked at.

One of the evils of the times is the want of official responsibility. Some important positions are amply fortified by bonds, while others, and equally important, are not guarded at all. Some occupants of some high positions are impeachable, and the honor and reputation at stake are sufficient to guarantee faithful performance of duty; but all public officers charged with the duty of receiving or disbursing the money of the people should be required to give security to faithfully account therefor. There can be no mistake about this.

The offices of Chief of Police and Street Commissioner are very important, both to the people and the city as a corporation. Public monies are involved in both, either receiving or disbursing. In addition thereto, inefficiency or neglect on the part of either, involves the city in pecuniary loss or responsibility. If the street-ways are not kept in proper repair, or the work put upon them is not skilfully and well done, the city loses on the score of economy, besides the liability that arises in case of damage to person or property by reason of either neglect or inefficiency in the person having charge of the streets and street improvements.

The Chief of Police is charged with the duty of collecting monies; he over looks and has practical control of the police force, and in keeping the lives of those who are locked up for offenses. There is a responsibility attaching to the office of no trivial character, and the city is liable for the conduct of that officer for every moment of his official tenure.

There may be other positions that it would be well to fortify with bonds; and it may be that in the cases referred to the bonds were fixed unnecessarily high, but, the general principle of official accountability, not alone applicable to city offices, the general public will not combat, for the principle is a good one, and in its adoption and workings, proper discrimination should be exercised that no officer be excessively or inadequately bonded.

The Dick-Douglas Dynasty.

The Asheville Citizen presents, again, Judge Dick, his court and judicial family, in their usual and self-chosen unenviable light.

It seems out of the question for this concern to rise to the degree of decency, or approach either public duty or official dignity.

There appears to be but one impulse among these Federal dignitaries, and that is self-preservation in the places they occupy but to disgrace.

It is an undying shame—a spectacle of everlasting infamy, that this horde is permitted to exist in the high and official positions of the United States judiciary.

If there is a crime in the catalogue of possible or permitted outrages, which the judicial family of the Western District has not committed or condoned, it would be an act of the highest justice to them and the government they so unworthily represent to allow it to be made public; indelibly printed on everlasting parchment in bold, unfading type.

Joshua Franks, it will be remembered, last year about this time fled the State to Washington, and there confessed his participation in numberless frauds on the government and outrages on the people. His confession implicated the whole concern, and for a time put the little Douglas in hot water. Franks, after examination, was bound to the Federal court at Asheville, and his case stood for trial at this May term. He was there ready for trial, but being a man given somewhat to outspokenness, hesitated not to say that he proposed some disclosures on that trial that would not be very savory to some persons high up in the court, however much the public might be interested therein.

Straightway Judge Dick orders a continuance of the case. Much, very much, is sometimes gained by time. A hundred contingencies may arise. Many fortuitous circumstances may present themselves within the next six months. Franks might die, or be induced to run away. It would not be an extraordinary thing or surprising occurrence if the Attorney General at Washington should order the case dismissed. Such things have been done before, in matters of as grave significance in Judge Dick's court. The Surry tobacco cases are in point; and it is no new thing for Judge Dick to trade the vengeance of the law for endorsements of the personal and official conduct of his judicial family.

But the most important reality staring the dynasty in the face, is that the term of Marshal Douglas expires by limitation in June. Disclosures of the nature which the guilty souls know to be in the power of Franks to make, might render the re-appointment of Mr. Douglas extremely doubtful, though under such an administration as that of President Hayes, which delights to patronize plunderers and reward scoundrels, such fear is most likely groundless; but it must be remembered that conscience makes cowards of guilty men, and there is nothing in the history of the Dick-Douglas dynasty to inspire the spirit of bold, brave men in any of them, from chiefs to henchmen.

It would be a matter of some interest to the public to be permitted to know about how long the Dick-Douglas dynasty is likely to last. If that rule is to be continued the people of the Western District might look for homes elsewhere. Bounded by Virginia, Tennessee, Georgia, South Carolina and the Eastern District of North Carolina, they might parcel out themselves among these territories until the reign is ended and the dynasty itself passes away.

Mr. Waddell has a bill for abolishing the conceru, but there are many defendants in Judge Dicks' court, in severely tight places, and whenever the dynasty finds itself in danger of being abdicated it plays the docket as a full hand, and in the game has so far won. Next to the dynasty itself, Mr. Waddell and his bill were, at one time, in danger of becoming the most odious and unpopular of anything that ever existed in the remotest connection to the Western District. It might be well for Mr. Waddell to occasionally make a demonstration with his bill, if only to keep up the spirit of the contest. Mr. Douglas will be in Washington very soon, seeking his reappointment, and loaded down with endorsements, petitions and prayers in his behalf, and ten to one he will have one from Franks, himself, or his attorney, beyond doubt.

DAILY NEWS.

TUESDAY, ... MAY 21, 1878.

LET US HAVE PEACE.

A Plea for Harmony---Suggested Retirement of Judge Schenck.

Correspondence of the News.

RALEIGH, May 20th.

Having conversed with a great many excellent men and well-to-do citizens—Democrats, all of them, of unblemished record, I think I may safely say that I herein embody their views.

The Democratic Convention will convene in Raleigh about the middle of June. It is all-important that the discord now so wide-spread in our political family circle be allayed, and that a spirit of mutual forbearance, gentleness and loving kindness, be studiously cultivated from this day forward, and if possible, brought to such perfection by the time the Convention assembles, that its influence shall be felt by every member of that body. Could this glorious state of affairs be brought about, we should find, instead of the petty jealousies and bitter contentions of the present hour controlling men's minds, that peace and harmony would hold full sway in the Convention, to the great advancement and glory of the Democratic party and to the utter confusion of our political enemies who, feeling that they can accomplish nothing of themselves, are making no secret of the fact that they propose to profit by our domestic broils. What we need—what we must have is united action, a pull all together, or we hand the control of affairs over to the Republican party. Now, Mr. Editor, we quiet folks, who dabble not in politics, who allow the party managers to take charge of the good ship of State, and content ourselves with the innocent amusement of showing off somewhat, about election time, are disposed to cry out fie, for shame! When we see the "top knot lights of the party" (I believe that's the way the Hon. Josiah used to put it) creating such sad havoc in our ranks, and persistently sticking in the fore rank, not by so doing to conduct to victory, but almost certainly bringing about the ruin of our political organization. Why is it thus? Because, forsooth, these good gentlemen are entitled to the nomination; 'tis their's as a matter of right—and come what, come may, they will not back down—they propose to die with "harness on their backs," that is to say, in office.

Now, whither does all this tend simply this, nearly all the disunion has sprung from the Supreme Court Nominations. At last, the party leaders, and indeed, the rank and file, that is to say we quiet folks, &c., as aforesaid, seem to agree that Mr. Smith will be our next Chief Justice. We shall have no great quarrel then in the Convention, as to the Chief Justiceship, and I say nothing on that score. So far, the cross may be considered laid by. The fuss now is about the Associates, or rather about the Associate Justice that is to be, from the West, for even our Eastern friends have interested themselves, no little in that quarter. In brief, Judge Schenck, is the rock that threatens to splinter and shiver the great Democratic party of North Carolina into a thousand pieces. Now I have a very slight acquaintance with Judge Schenck—I was introduced to him when he held special term of Wake Superior Court, some year or so ago—and saw something of him at the time—I may say that from his conduct here, his pleasant manners and the excellent impression, I am told he made on our bar and people, that I am disposed to believe all the good things, we have read in the papers about his Honor. Be all this as it may, the Judge has most unfortunately made many, very many bitter enemies, among those men of high position and influence in our party—men who control public opinion to a great extent, in their several localities. How all this came about, we quiet folks don't know and can't pretend to say—its so though. Some months ago, there were mutterings hostile to Judge Schenck in the air. Time passed on. These murmurs grew loud and got more loud, until a general howl of discontent at the intention of Judge Schenck's friends to press his name before the Convention, was heard in every village and cross-roads inn. The newspapers took up and re-echoed the cry. Public meetings were held. The country seemed about evenly divided between the Schenck and anti Schenck men, while we sober-minded individuals and quiet folks as aforesaid, deprecated the whole business and moralized upon one of the sayings of the Republican party, namely: that the Democrats only require free rein plenty of rope, and they will work out their own destruction with marvellous rapidity. The thinking men of our party feel that the surest, the safest—well-nigh the only way to avoid serious trouble in the Convention so soon to meet, and to promote the best interests of our party, is for Judge Schenck's friends to urge him to withdraw from the contest. Thus only can the troubled waters be rendered smooth, and by such generous, such truly patriotic action, Judge Schenck would secure to himself the regard and admiration of all wings of his own party, and the confidence and good will of honest men everywhere.

If the Judge thinks he has gone too far to retrace his steps now, then the Convention should at once, upon its own motion, drop his name, and substitute some good man and sound lawyer who has it in his power to reconcile the discordant elements in our own party, and thus enable us to present a solid front to our enemies. SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,

Catawba County, N. C.

THIS desirable watering place will be open for select visitors 20th May, 1878. The springs are situated near Hickory station, on the Western North Carolina Railroad.

The bracing mountain atmosphere, with the health restoring properties of their waters, renders these Springs a most desirable resort for invalids and pleasure seekers.

The mineral waters embrace Blue and White Sulphur and Chalybeate. It is the best and most extensively fitted up watering place in the State, and can accommodate three hundred persons.

A good Band of Music will remain at the Springs during the season, and all the facilities afforded for amusements usually found at first-class watering places will be offered to visitors. A good supply of ice constantly on hand.

Conveyances will meet the trains daily at Hickory Station, to convey visitors to the Springs.

Board: $35 per month of 28 days; $12 per week; $2 per day. Half price for children and colored servants, and liberal deduction for families.

—Rev. T. H. Pritchard will preach at Crawford's school-house near the new Fair Ground, to-morrow evening.

—On Thursday evening the colored people will give an ice cream festival at St. Augustine Church, Episcopal, for the benefit of that church.

—Much interest is manifested in the proceedings of the Criminal Court, now in session. The Court House was thronged yesterday, by a crowd composed principally of negroes. There are a number of capital cases. The number of prisoners now in jail for trial is 35.

The Dime Party.

Music, ices, strawberries and fancy articles in profusion will be found at the entertainment to be given by the ladies of the First Presbyterian church at the Sunday School room to-morrow evening.

Died.

On the 18th instant, at his home near Tally Ho, Granville county, in the 81st year of his age, Bartlett Andrews. The funeral will take place from the First Baptist church of this city, this morning at 9½ o'clock. Friends and acquaintances are invited to attend.

Commencement Exercises.

We learn that at the commencement exercises of the Baptist Female College, on the 24th prox., there will be sung parts of Demanti's Mass, in B flat. The young ladies be will assisted by the choir and a few amateurs. A duet is also to be sung, so our citizens may anticipate a musical treat, as well as an excellent address.

Arrival of Convicts.

Deputy Sheriff A. J. Simms, of Wilson county, delivered to the authorities of the Penitentiary, one Charles Brown, negro, convicted of larceny, and sentenced to imprisonment for two years.

Sheriff H. S. Gibbs, of Hyde county, brought up to the State pen, Willis Perry, colored, convicted of larceny, put in for one year.

Celebration of the 20th.

This day, which it was intented to celebrate, was so unpleasant as to prevent any demonstrations whatever. The troops were ordered to assemble, the Raleigh Light Infantry, at their armory. The Raleigh Light Artilery also met. Owing to the inclemency of the weather the public parade was dispensed with. The R. L. I. held a dress parade at their armony. The regular monthy parade of this corps takes place to-morrow, at which time a large attendance is desired.

Personals.

Col. L. L. Polk, State Commissioner of Agriculture, goes to-day to Edgecombe county, where he has been invited by the grangers and farmers to deliver an address upon Agricultural matters, at Sparta.

Col. Paul B. Means, of Concord, is registered at the Yarboro.

Alf. A. Haywood, Esq., leaves to-morrow for Houston, Texas, on business.

Hon. Kemp P. Battle, President of the University, is in the city.

Tried to Take a Turkey.

Sunday morning, as watchman Paul Lincke, on duty at the cotton yard, was going his rounds, he heard a noise at the store of the Messrs. Parham, on Martin street. and saw some parties, presumably negroes, making their way at a run, carrying with them something. Called upon to halt they slackened not their pace, so the officer gave them three pistol shots. These caused them to drop their prize which proved to be a magnificent turkey, weighing 20 lbs., the property of Mr. Parham. The fowl was restored to his coop. No clue to the rascals has been found.

Mayor's Court.

On Friday evening Dr. S. J. Montague, of Wake Forest, while in our city was robbed of a gold watch. Saturday evening a negro walked into Higgs' saloon, Wilmington street, and desired to dispose of a watch, which he exhibited. Officer Mullins, of the city police force, saw the watch, and suspecting some foul play, arrested the negro who had it, and locked him up in the guard house. The case came up yesterday morning before Mayor Manly. The watch was identified by a brother of Dr. Montague, as the one stolen from that gentlemen. The thief, who is a most swarthy African, was at once committed to jail, in default of bond of $200. He will have justice done him at the present term of Criminal Court.

Compliment to North Carolina Ladies.

The Norfolk and Portsmouth papers pay very handsome compliments to our ladies for their beautiful floral offerings on Memorial day in those cities. The Virginian says: The following are the names of the North Carolina ladies, as far as we could find out, who so kindly remembered us on the 10th in sending us contributions of flowers: Misses Mannie Jones, Parkham, Nash, and Captain Bryant, Moncure, N. C., Mrs. T. C. Fuller, Mrs. John R. Williams, Mrs. J. B. Bachelor, Mrs. G. W. Mordecai, Mrs. R. S. Tucker, and Mrs. A. M. McPheeters, Raleigh, N. C., Mrs. J. W. Slocomb and Miss Anna Howze, Goldsboro, N. C., Mr. L. R. Exline, Miss Lula Mann, Misses Mary Mildred, Sallie Smith, and Miss Mannie Scott, Haywood, N. C.

All those desiring to enjoy that degree of health which pure blood induces and maintains should use Dr. Bull's Blood mixture.

SUNDAY'S SERVICES.

Sermons From our City Pulpits.

A return of summer's warmth and softness, with bright skies bending overhead, all seemingly tenfold more pleasant after the bleak and inclement weather of the week preceeding, marked Sunday last as a day of peculiar beauty. Those who had so recently shivered over unseasonable fires, now emerged into the outer air clad in spring habiliments, and took their way churchward. The greater number of our pulpits were once again occupied by their pastors, who had returned from sundry visits. We give below a synopsis of the remarks of these divines, which were listened to, in most part, by full congregations.

SALISBURY STREET BAPTIST.

The pulpit was occupied and the day's services conducted by the Pastor, Rev. T. H. Pritchard, D. D., who in the morning took as texts "Matt. xxvi: 39, "O, my Father, if it be possible let this cup pass from me;" and Phil. 1: 23, "For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart aud be with Christ, which is far better." The speaker said that he had selected two texts for the purpose of speaking of the personal feeling in regard to death, as expressed by Jesus Christ, the founder of the Christian religion, and of Paul, the great apostle in teaching and expounding its principles. It would seem that Jesus, of all men would have had no fear of death, and yet he shrank from it. He knew what death was and the fearful sufferings which he would undergo in perfecting the work for which he came into the world. Paul expressed a desire to depart and be with Jesus. Nothing is said of Paul's death, because it was of small consequence to the world. The death of Christ was of incomprehensible consequence to the race of men and its great importance was attested by the wonderful phenomena of nature in the darkening of the sun—the earthquake, the rending of the vail of the temple, the coming forth of the dead from their graves in which they may have reposed for centuries.

In the evening Dr. Pritchard discoursed from the text Luke XVI:31. "And he said unto him, if they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded through one rose from the dead." The subject was the sufficiency of the scripture for all the purposes of salvation. One of the most important truths taught in the Bible, is, that man is to live again, and it also teaches that there will be different conditions in the future, one of inexpressible joy and felicity, and the other of inconceivable anguish and remorse. The condition is unchangeable. "There is a great gulf fixed." This division is not made arbitrarily. The principle upon which the division depends is made known in the scripture. And it is not made according to the principles which obtain among men. We would have said that Lazarus was not suited to the society of the refined. It is not charged that the rich man was bad. It is true he was wanting in the common feelings of humanity; but he simply forgot God.

PERSON STREET METHODIST.

In the absence of the pastor at the quarterly meeting at Clayton, the pulpit was filled by Rev. R. S. Burwell, of the Presbyterian Church, in the morning, and by Rev. D. P. Meacham in the evening.

CHRIST CHURCH.

The morning services were conducted by the Rector, Rev. M. M. Marshall, D. D. His text was from Deuteronomy xxxiv:6. "No man knoweth of his sepulchre until this day." This brief record contains all we know of the burial place of the great law giver and man of God, Moses. It seems strange to us, in view of the pomp which usually attends the last rites over the great of earth. In the earliest history of chosen people we find a reverence for sepulchres. In this there was nothing idolatrous, but a rational regard for the departed. This love for these last resting-places has come down to us, and for us there is one sepulchre which sanctifies all the rest, that of our Lord. Moses was sent up on Mount Pisgah, that he might look at the Promised Land which God had ordered he should never enter. History is silent as to the fault for whose committal Moses was thus forbidden to do more than look at the place towards which he had so long and so faithfully led his people. As he went up into the mountain, knowing he should there meet only his God, look his last, then die, think of his feelings. We must all die alone, but the deaths of good men are softened by the presence of the Savior, a stay in the trying ordeal of the last hour. Moses was a man utterly unselfish, and self-sacrificing men are strangers to most of the griefs and annoyances to which selfish ones are the prey. The need of constant preparation for the final rest, the need of a dependance on God. "Do thou thy part and leave to Him the rest." There should be made the best use of the day which He hath given us, that we may prepare ere coming of the night. We should rise above this present world and its allurements. There is much to catch the fancy, but we should tarry not, and as Moses went up so we must. There is no time to spare. Those who pause are lost. The ascent must be made, the way won. Let us then be ever stepping heavenward.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

Rev. C. R. Vaughan, D. D., the pastor, having returned from his visit to Virginia, occupied his pulpit once again, preaching both morning and evening.

SECOND PRESBYTERIAN.

The services of the day were conducted by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Atkinson, D. D. His text in the morning was 1 Samuel 1: 12. No church was ever more visibly indebted to God for His mercies than this little church of ours. Organized just a year ago last Wednesday, from that day to this we have been cheered by expressive tokens of our Heavenly Father's favor. For putting the thought into the hearts of those who first conceived the enterprise; in the increasing good will and respect of the community and city. I have never known an enterprise resting on so catholic a basis of common christian conduct. There is no Protestant denomination not represented on our subscription lists. We have a lot purchased and paid for. In addition to this we have subscribed two-thirds of all that will be required to erect the buildings. For the additions to our membership. When organized we had only twenty-eight names on our roll; now we have thirty-six, most of whom have been received on the confession of their faith. For the continued health of our members; not a funeral in the church from its organization. For the unbroken cordiality and brotherly love which have prevailed amongst us from the beginning. For the zealous and efficient work done on the part of the members of the church. The ladies of the church have raised, by the work of their own hands, nearly two hundred dollars for congregational purposes.

II. What we ought to do toward God in the view of what He has done for us. 1st. Acknowledge His good hand upon us and refer every blessing to His unmerited goodness. 2d. Be careful to do nothing to displease Him. 3d, Every member of the church should sustain it as if all depended upon Himself alone. 4th. Let your prayers to God for the prosperity of Zion go up day and night. 5th. Beyond all blessings of Providence and grace invoke the blessing of the Holy Ghost on yourself, your church and your pastor.

In the afternoon the pastor preached from Acts 2: 21.

Criminal Court.

Judge George V. Strong presiding. The Court convened at 11¾ o'clock, when the grand jury composed of the following gentlemen was drawn: Ransom Otague, foreman; A J Montague, W Johnson, W B May, Bryant, W Peter Young, A J Hubbard, A Betts, High, S F Bailey, L Hartsfield, James Johnson, J S Clifton, J Lassiter, Geo. W D Alford, W H Bennett, J C Barham, Charles Cardwell, Bennett, J J Mann, and A F Johnson.

His Honor then charged the Grand Jury in his usual able style. His charge was listened to with marked attention.

The docket was then called and the following cases disposed of:

State vs. Graham Jenkins; affray. Submission. Judgment suspended on payment of costs.

State and A. R. Horton vs. Wesley Burton. Peace warrant; dismissed at costs of defendant.

State vs. Thomas Wynne—A. and B. Submission; judgment $10.00 fine and costs.

State vs. Christopher and Seth Christmas; peace warrant. Judgment that defendant Christopher Christmas give bond to keep the peace until Court and pay costs.

State vs. George Strickland; larceny and receiving. Jury—Verdict guilty. Judgement four years in the Penitentiary.

State vs. Christopher Christmas. A. & B.; submission. Judgment $5.00 fine and costs.

State and Simon Brinkley vs. Aaron Burton; peace warrant. Dismissed at cost of defendant.

Orphan's Concert.

It was pleasant to see the large audience that filled Metropolitan Hall last evening to witness the performances of the Oxford Orphans. Mr. J. H. Mills, having them in charge, before the regular exercises began, discoursed at some length upon the plans and purposes of the Asylum. His remarks were both pertinent and sensible. He stated the Asylum though in charge of the Grand Lodge of Masons was for the benefit of all, a place which gave shelter to every orphan who might seek it. There are now 130 children. When these conclude their course they readily find good situations or are adopted. There was much of wit in his remarks, and the audience was in the best of good humors.

He then called upon the little singers for a song. There were on the slate 12 little orphans, 8 boys, 4 girls, neatly dressed. Among them was a little Cherokee maiden. The singing of the pupils was marked by more than ordinary excellence. The recitations and dialogues were also effective and well rendered. Their voices are of great purity and sweetness. The Cherokee girl counted 100 in her native tongue. The exercises concluded with an exhibition of calisthenics as practiced at the school, followed by the singing of the "Old North State." A collection was then taken up, and a handsome sum realized. Wherever in the State these children go, they deserve the fullest patronage and best assistance.

Hon. Kemp P. Battle at Asheville.

The lecture lately delivered by this eminent gentleman, the President of our State University, to the people of Asheville, is spoken of as an able effort, filled with the best of good advice. The speaker made a strong appeal in behalf of the advantages offered to the people of North Carolina in her University and the system of education now practiced at that institution. He gave a short sketch of the history of the University, showing that our ancestors incorporated a provision into the constitution of 1776 commanding the Legislature to establish it. He explained the present mode of instruction at the University, taking up in detail the branches of science relating to agriculture. He argued earnestly to show the great importance of our farmers being trained in chemistry, botany, zoology, geology, mechanics, &c. The advantages of agricultural chemistry, of the analysis of fertilizers, and of the experiment station at the University were explained at length.

Changes of Schedule.

By the new schedule on the Raleigh & Augusta Air Line close connection is now made at Hamlet, with trains on the Carolina Central Railway.

The change in the accommodation train on the R. & G. Railway will make it convenient for those leaving for the North in the evening, as the train leaves at 5:30 p. m.

A new schedule went into effect on the Western N. C. Railroad on Friday last. The trains going East now leave Henry at 7 a. m. reaching Salisbury at 2:30 p. m. Returning West, leave Salisbury at 7:35 a. m., immediately after the arrival of the train from Raleigh and Richmond, and arriving at Henry at 3:20 p. m.—Under this arrangement the stage will come to Asheville the same night, thus making the mails some 20 hours earlier than heretofore.

Fish in our Streams.

One of the best informed pisciculturists in the State has furnished the Department of Agriculture with a list of the fish caught in Neuse River. There are in all 64 varieties, all distinctly different. Of these, 19 kinds are fresh water, and 45 salt water fishes. All come from the waters of this one stream.

The Alarm of Fire Last Night

was occasioned by the explosion of a kerosene lamp in Tupper's church. Mannal Jones, one of the congregation, was burned about the neck. The explosion caused quite a panic, and the church was quickly emptied. The various fire companies were on hand but their services were not needed. Raleigh News, Oct. 2nd, 1877.

A Tranquil Nirevous System

Can never be possessed by those whose digestive and assimilative organs are in a state of chronic disorder. Weak stomachs make weak nerves. To restore vigor and quietude to the latter, the first must be invigorated and regulated. The ordinary sedatives may tranquilize the nerves for a while, but they can never like Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, remove the causes of nervous debility. That superb invigorant and corrective of disordered conditions of the alimentary organs has also the effect of imparting tone to the nerves. The delicate tissues of which they are constituted, when weakened in consequence of impoverishment of the blood, resulting from imperfect digestion and assimilation, draw strength from the fund of vitality developed in the system by the Bitters, which imparts the required impetus to the nutritive functions of the stomach, enriches the circulation, and gives tone and regularity to the secretive and evacuative organs.

BEAUTY!

OR, THE

Secret of a Fair Face

An Item of Interest to Every Lady who Desires to be More Beautiful than she now is.

Unfortunately not one woman in a hundred is subjected to the whims of an American climate possesses that basis and starting point of real beauty, pure and clear complexion.

What nature has thus denied, art must step in and supply upon to furnish.

It can be done; it is done daily. Prof. T. Hagan placed beauty within the reach of every blessed daughter of Eve when he discovered the surprising article known in fashionable circles as the true secret of beauty, and called

MAGNOLIA BALM

The Magnolia Balm is a sure device for creating a pure and blooming complexion.

It conceals all natural blemishes in the most surprising and effective manner.

It removes all roughness, eruptions, redness, blotches, freckles, and tan with magical power.

It drives away all evidences of fatigue, anxiety and excitement.

It makes the plainest face beautiful.

It gives the complexion a dazzling purity and makes the neck, arms, and hands appear graceful, rotund, and plump.

It makes a matron of 35 or 40 look not more than 20 years old, and changes the rustic maiden into a cultivated city belle.

The Magnolia Balm removes all blemishes and conceals every drawback to beauty; and, while it is as harmless as water, it is so life-like in its effect that the closest observer cannot detect its use.

Ladies who want to make themselves attractive can make an absolute certainty of it by using HAGAN'S MAGNOLIA BALM, and we know of no other way. It is the cheapest preparation in the world, all things considered, and may be had at any drug store.

PORTNER'S PREMIUM TIVOLI LAGER BEER,

Southern Depot of
ALEXANDRIA BREWERY
83 Main Street,
NORFOLK, Va.

I respectfully ask the attention of Dealers and Consumers to our "Tivoli Lager Beer," put up in Patent stopped bottles. Having made a speciality of bottling this Beer, which is brewed by us expressly for export trade, and which received the Prize Medal at the late Richmond, Va., State Fair, "for general excellence" and which has no superior in this or any other market.

I hereby tender my thanks to the citizens of North Carolina who have so liberally patronized me, and ask for a continuance of their patronage.
